Rome, April 17. N. S.

THE Pope intended on the 11th Inſtant, being Eaſter day, to have appeared in Publick for the firſt time ſince his Illneſs, but the Weather proving cold and rainy, he was prevailed with to put it off till this day; Accordingly a Solemn Maſs was ſung this morning in the Chappel of the Quirinal by Cardinal Norris, after which the Pope was brought in an open Chair from his Chamber to a Gallery, from whence he twice gave his Bleſſing to the People, and at the ſame time a Diſcharge was made of the Cannon of the Caſtle of St. Angelo. The Pope has not yet recovered his Strength, nor could he long endure the open Air; He continues however his Reſolution of going to Nettuno, and intends to be carried thither in a Chair upon Men's Shoulders. Cardinal Cantelmi ſeems at preſent to have the Firſt Place in the Pope's Favour, and is very frequently in private with him. Prince Anthony of Parma arrived here the 10th Inſtant from Venice, and had Audience of the Pope on the 12th. The Count de Lamberg, Ambaſſador from the Emperor, having received an Expreſs from Vienna, had Audience of the Pope on the 14th, and 'tis ſaid acquainted him, that the Emperor does accept of Monſeigneur Davia, who at preſent is Nuncio in Poland, to reſide with the ſame Character at the Imperial Court. 'Tis ſaid, that by this Expreſs, Orders are come to the Count de Martinitz forthwith to return home, without inſiſting to have an Audience of Leave of the Pope. The Biſhop of Warmia is lately arrived here from Warſaw, and has had a Private Audience of the Pope, but the Errand he is ſent upon is yet a Secret. Cardinal Coaſlin has begun to pay the uſual Viſit to the College of Cardinals, and has a very magnificent Train; The other Cardinals lately come hither from France, are preparing their Equipages in order to appear likewiſe in Publick. Great Application is made to the Pope by the Cardinals of his Creating, to obtain a Cardinal's Cap for Signior Pignatelli, his Kinſman, whom they intend to make the Head of their Party; which is ſtrongly oppoſed by the French Cardinals, becauſe he is not in their Intereſt. Signior Canaffa, Son to the Prince of Belvedera, is made Vice-Legate of Urbino.

Mittaw, April 23. The Detachment that was lately ſent from the Saxon Camp before Riga, to oppoſe the Succours which are ſaid to be marching from Finland to the Relief of that Place, continue intrenched on the other ſide the River Dwina; The Saxons keep the Town very cloſely blocked up, however the Country People find Means to ſupply it from time to time with Proviſions, though not without great Hazard and Difficulty. The Saxons have not of late made any Attack againſt the Place, nor is it thought they will attempt any thing further before the return of Monſieur Fleming, their General, who is ſtill at Warſaw.

Warſaw, April 23. The King of Poland has cauſed Letters to be ſent to the Senators, who are out of Town, to haſten their coming hither, in order to conſult with them about the Affairs of Liefland. An Envoy is lately arrived here from the Czar of Muſcovy, and had Audience of the King laſt week. He has made Propoſals for the Eſtabliſhing of a Poſt from hence to Moſcow, and other Parts of the Czar's Dominions. Monſieur Dutteron, Envoy from the moſt Chriſtian King, is arrived here from Hanover, and will have Audience of the King in few days. Major-General Tramp is lately come from Copenhagen, and has frequent Conferences with the Miniſters of this Court, and 'tis ſaid, they are treating of renewing the Alliance made between the Crowns of Denmark and Poland in the Year 1658. General Fleming is ſtill here; It's reported, that before he left the Camp at Riga, he propoſed to the Magiſtrates of that Place, That if they would Surrender to the King of Poland, their City ſhould make a part of the Republick of Poland, and enjoy the ſame Privileges as the City of Dantzick; That the Garriſon ſhould be at their own Diſpoſal, and Independant from the King or the Republick; That as to Matters of Religion, all things ſhould continue in the Condition they are at preſent; And that they ſhould be eaſed in the Taxes they uſed to pay to the Crown of Sweden; But theſe Propoſals were rejected by the Swedes.

Vienna, April 24. The Imperial Court went yeſterday to Laxemberg, to take the Diverſion of Hunting. The Imperial Troops in Bohemia are drawing together, under the Command of Count Daun, as are likewiſe thoſe in Sileſia, which will be commanded by Major-General Haſeling, and they are all to encamp during this Summer on the Borders of Saxony. Applications have been made to the Emperor, to deſire he will permit ſome Recruits to be raiſed in the Hereditary Countries for the Service of the King of Poland, but he has refuſed it. A Reſident is arrived here from Warſaw, but as yet keeps incognito. The Count de Wells, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the King of Sweden, is on his departure from hence to Stockholme. Letters from Conſtantinople of the 6th Inſtant ſay, the Imperial Ambaſſador continued his Conference with the Miniſters at the Port, for adjuſting all Matters concerning the Limits between the German and Turkiſh Dominions; That a Diſpute was riſen between the Turks and the Venetians, about ſetling their Limits; The Turks would have the Boundaries between Boſnia and Ragiuſa adjuſted, and the Towns of Popovo and Cattaro evacuated by the Venetians, before they go on to ſettle the Limits near Caſtelnovo and Riſano; And the
